The Office of Inspector General (OIG) is an independent unit established by law which is responsible for promoting economy, efficiency, and effectiveness and detecting and preventing fraud, waste, and mismanagement in the General Services Administration's (GSA) programs and operations. Our mission is to help the GSA to effectively carry out its responsibilities and to protect the public interest by bringing about positive changes in the performance, accountability, and integrity of GSA programs and operations.

MAIN MENU

Hotline
  About the Hotline
  Whistleblower Rights and Protections
Documents & Reports
About the OIG
  About the OIG
  Careers
  History
  Meet the IG
Offices
  -- Office of Administration
  -- Office of Audits
  -- Office of Counsel
  -- Office of Inspections
  -- Office of Investigations
News
Contact