Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act Requests

Due to the COVID-19 situation, the GSA OIG is not receiving FOIA requests by standard mail. You may submit a FOIA request by email at OIGFOIA-PrivacyAct@gsaig.gov. Mailed FOIA requests will be processed after the GSA OIG returns to normal operations. We apologize for this inconvenience and appreciate your understanding.

General Information

The Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, permits any person to request access to federal agency records or information. Federal agencies are required to disclose records upon receipt of a written request, except for records that are protected from disclosure by nine exemptions or three exclusions in the Act. Records protected from disclosure by one of the nine exemptions must be identified in response to a FOIA request. The records protected by the nine exemptions are:

- Classified Matters of National Defense or Foreign Policy
- Internal Personnel Rules and Practices
- Information Specifically Exempted by Other Statutes
- Trade Secrets, Commercial or Financial Information
- Privileged interagency or Intra-agency Memoranda or Letters
- Personal Information Affecting an Individual's Privacy
- Investigatory Records Compiled for Law Enforcement Purposes
- Regulation of Financial Institutions
- Geological and Geophysical Information Concerning Wells

Agencies will not acknowledge the existence of records protected from disclosure by one of the three exclusions. The records protected by the three exclusions are:

- Pending Criminal Law Enforcement Investigations if the Target is Unaware
- Confidential Informant Information
- Classified FBI Intelligence Information

For more information on the FOIA exemptions and exclusions, see 5 U.S.C. § 552(b) and(c) and 41 C.F.R. § 105-60.501.
