The Office of Administration is a multi-faceted, fast-paced organization responsible for providing comprehensive administrative support and business services to all components within the Office of Inspector General. It is comprised of functional program areas that provide human resource management, budget and financial management, information technology, contracting, facilities and support services, executive resources, and policy development to meet the needs of daily operations and to assist the OIG in carrying out its critical mission.

- OIG’s Procedure for Considering Conduct When Determining Senior Executive Service (SES) Employee Performance Awards
- GSA OIG COVID-19 Workplace Safety Plan