

WPA Art Recovery, Riverside Unified School District

May 1, 2017

GSA OIG special agents recovered several pieces of New Deal era artwork commissioned under the Works Progress Administration (WPA), including two wood carvings by Robert Kiose, "Christopher Columbus" and "Juan Bautista Anza," and an oil painting by Arthur Cane, "Desert South of Indio." The artwork is currently on loan to the Riverside Unified School District.