On May 29, 2009, Booz, Allen & Hamilton, Inc. signed a Release and Settlement Agreement with the U.S. Attorney's Office, Eastern District of Virginia, to pay the United States $325,000.

Booz, Allen, & Hamilton, Inc. (BAH) is a GSA-schedule provider of information services. A NASA contract specialist, who requested anonymity, alleged that BAH was billing for employees at higher job categories than would have been justified by their experience, inflating their monthly hours and submitting excessive billing at their off-site rate.

The case was prosecuted by the Civil Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office, Eastern District of Virginia.
